It has been brought to the notice of the Committee that the large and populous town of Chintamani has been suffering greatly for want of sufficient supply of drinking water and that the Municipal Funds are too limited to effect the needful improvement. The existing grievance was represented by the towns-people to the Dewan during his visit to the place in January 1892, when the Dewan was pleased to order the needful being done. (Vide para 245, page 7 of "Notes by the Dewan on Tour 1891-92.")
